

National Lutheran Schools Week 2010: March 7 - 13

Preparing for a Life of Service

National Lutheran Schools week will be here soon and JOY Academy is looking forward to a fun and exciting week. Below you will find a list of the events happening at JOY during the week. Each day has a different dress up theme and students need to either come in uniform or dress for the theme. Throughout the week our students will be focusing on how we can serve others around us and share the love and joy of Jesus. There will be fun events planned for our JOY families, Bethlehem members, and prospective families.

Sunday, March 7th:

JOY Academy students will be singing during the 9:00 am service at Bethlehem Lutheran Church. Please arrive at 8:45 am and have your students sit with you during the service. The students will be called to the front when it is time to sing. Join us after church for the opening of the Scholastic Book Fair! ☺

Monday, March 8th:

Weird and Wacky Day – Today is the day to wear your clothes backwards or put on your favorite funny hat. We are excited to see how wacky we can get!

During the day our students will be serving others by working together and making packets of cards as gifts for our shut-ins members of our church.

Tuesday, March 9th:

Career Day – Today is the day to think about what you want to be when you grow up. Come to school dressed up and show us how you would like to serve God through your work.

Join us from 6:00 - 7:00 pm tonight in the gym for our very own sock-hop. Bring your families and friends. There will also be an Open House going on during this time for prospective families.

Wednesday, March 10th:

Bible Character Day – Come to school dressed as your favorite Bible character! Our chapel service today will focus on leading a life of service to others.

Following our chapel service, JOY Academy will be hosting an Appreciation Tea for members of Bethlehem Church. This is our way of saying thank you for all their prayers and support. Students will be able to have a snack and enjoy a time of fellowship with the members.

Thursday, March 11th:

Pajama Day- Wear your favorite pajamas to school today. Don't forget your slippers and favorite stuffed animal.

Friday, March 12th:

Spirit Day – If you have our new JOY Academy spirit wear, today is the day to wear it! Dress in our school colors and show your school spirit. Jeans will be allowed.

VIP DAY – Bring your Very Important Person (Adult) to school with you. The VIP will have refreshments, attend an opening service at 9:15 am, and spend time in the student's classroom. School will end at 11:30 am for school-age students. There will be more information and invitations coming soon for VIPs.

(Please note: There is no lunch or extended day childcare available today for school age children!)

Make sure to bring your VIP to the Scholastic Book Fair and give them a tour of our library!
